dedication

TO MR. PETER TEICHROB—

—who served as Vice Principal in the High School Department last year, also faithfully representing the students on the Sports' Committee.

—whose faithful Christian testimony both in and out of class has been a source of encouragement to all.

—who underwent a serious illness, but in answer to prayer plans to resume his position of teaching soon.

REV. H. HILDEBRAND

BIBLE INSTITUTE

"THE WORD OF OUR GOD SHALL STAND FOR EVER"

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF CARONPORT

The better things of life can only be had by paying the full price. The farmer who succeeds in spite of high costs of operation and limited quotas is the farmer who adopts the principle of frugal planning and hard toil with reward. The student who wins the medal is the student who studies right. The business man who presses ahead does not wait for opportunities, he makes his opportunities.

It is even more true in the biggest job of all. The temptation in the Christian service is to accept the easy way out. Not realizing that the easy way is always down hill. It is the scandal of modern Christendom that seeks to erase the cross from the centre of its confession. For our redemption the Saviour bled and died. In the obedience of faith our life-blood must go into the furtherance of the gospel. "If we cease to bleed we cease to bless." How beautifully David protested, "Neither will I offer burnt offering unto the Lord my God of that which costs me nothing." In that memorable act David forever repudiated all cheapness on the part of men in their worship of God and service with God.

To The Bible School Graduates

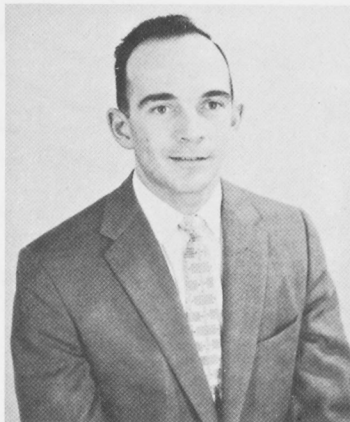

"Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure, for, if ye do these things, ye shall never fall; for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

"Give diligence," says Peter. This word of counsel was never more needed than today, when the forces of evil are making a determined effort to capture and enslave the souls and bodies of mankind by means of diabolical philosophies, backed by military might. Beloved, your calling is not only unto the faith, but unto holiness; your election not merely unto salvation, but unto God's service, and these must be secured, or "made sure" by diligent attention to the task of living all-out for God in the midst of this wicked generation. Wherever God may lead you and whatever sphere of ministry He appoints for you, be diligent in it, for half-heartedness in such a time as this will never win the day. Be diligent in prayer, in labor, in stewardship, in witness, and so prove steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord. This is your perpetual responsibility, and with its acceptance, there is a promise of great reward—first, of life-long stability—"If ye do these things ye shall never fall," and then of a triumphant and joyous completion of your earthly pilgrimage—"an entrance . . . ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

In this day of world crisis and of moral and spiritual declension, diligence in God's service may cost you your all, but it will pay eternal dividends.

To The High School Graduates

You want to live a life that counts. The life that counts fulfills a purpose. Almost two thousand years ago the inspired apostle wrote the words which shed a beam of light upon the pathway of the life that counts. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Romans 12:2.

"Be not conformed to this world." To those who have never tasted that the Lord is gracious, these words seem to restrict, confine, narrow. Though it be the paradox of Christianity it is true that freedom is found through surrender of the entire human being to the Lord. Total submission to the Lord of heaven and earth is the most emancipating act of which we are capable because of the nature of Him to whom we surrender. The life that counts is not found in conformity to this world but rather in surrender to the Lord of Glory.

"Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." To maintain the "newness" of mind no other agency can equal a concentrated study of the word of God. Receiving the inspired words of the sacred Book brings the wisdom to find and reveals the power to fulfill that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

That you may find and fulfill God's will in your life is our earnest prayer.

GRADES V-VIII

It is almost a universally accepted fact that an education is a very important preparation for life. For a Christian it is even more important. The Christian has to decide what type of education he wants and under what environment he wants to receive it. Bible training should fit into every young Christian's educational programme. He will want to take his training at a school or college that upholds both sound doctrine and scholarship.

For high school the picture is not so clear cut. Many questions come into the pupils' and parents' minds. Some of these are: How long should the children stay home? Should the children go to town and board, or light housekeep? Should they go to a Christian high school as soon as they enter grade nine? These questions have to be answered according to each individual case. Regardless of the conclusion arrived at, high school subjects taught by Christian teachers in a Christian atmosphere help to ground and strengthen the students in the Christian Faith.

Here at Caronport we have the privilege of teaching the elementary students under ideal conditions. That doesn't mean that we don't have problems—we do; but it does mean that we can start the little ones on the right path and in the right direction. We pray to God that we might do this in a way that will bring honour to His name.

A building "fitly framed together" has been constructed carefully and with the intention of permanent use. Meticulous planning and rigorous work have duly formed a lasting work. A class with direction and purpose will portray a Christian example and exert a positive influence. An individual "established in sound doctrine" will doubtless stand! Still, as the proud building was not completed in one day, neither will the hardy Christian be developed overnight.

Our class was providentially directed to this place of training. We entered these strange halls with keen anticipation, and yet, with solemn purpose. Every individual had potential-plus, but as yet, undiscovered. As the years progressed, an evident growth was noticeable in each life—things were taking shape. The three-year building program seemed difficult and nigh impossible at times, but the wise Masterbuilder was performing a work! What grace! What remarkable changes! What divine power! The building was nearing its completion and already the deadline date was rapidly approaching until graduation! Now it was time to move in and live in this structure. Will it prove to be a lasting work? We leave our training ground reluctantly and yet we aspire to fulfill God's perfect plans. We owe the world a true witness; we commit to God a yielded life. A building "fitly framed together" will weather any storm. Our challenge: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." I Corinthians 16:13.

II Timothy 3:14 "But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou has learned them."

As the Apostle Paul exhorts Timothy to continue on in the things which he has learned, so we also as second-years, desire to continue preparing ourselves for the service of God.

In 1956 we were the first-years. We flocked into Caronport from many different parts of the country, bringing with us many different backgrounds, ideas, and former teachings. Many of us were unsure of our Faith. Our knowledge of the Bible was very limited, and even more so—our understanding. For six months we sat under the teaching of men and women who were called of God to this very task. Day by day we grew and began to wax strong in the knowledge and faith of our Lord. Our understanding began to grow clearer and our personal faith began to grow more stable every day. As we yielded ourselves to God we realized that this was what God desired of us. Many a private battle was fought on our knees in our private bedchambers, but praise God for the grace supplied by which we conquered them—one at a time.

We are thankful to God that He has brought us back for our second term and are again looking forward to a precious time of devotion and concentrated study. It is our prayer that we may continue in the things which we have learned, because we know that we have learned them from our Master teacher—even the Lord Jesus Christ.

I Corinthians 3:11 "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

We, the first-year Bible Class of 1957-1958, as the Lord tarries, have come to B.B.I. with Jesus Christ in our hearts and a song of praise upon our lips. Our first and foremost desire is to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The entire world about us today is in a state of unrest and uncertainty. World annihilation seems to sound whenever a major power moves. Satan is manifesting his power in multitudes of people, instilling their minds with fear, corruption, and vice, which breed heinous sins. God's word declares that Kingdoms may wax and wane, men may come and go, but the Word of the Lord will stand forever.

Thus we have come to B.B.I. that we may, by the guiding hand of God, learn to win men to Christ.

Our prayer is that as we build upon Christ Jesus, the most sure foundation, our lives will radiate His Sovereignty and other lost and dying men will come and build with us, even on the Solid Rock, Christ Jesus.

Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest." I Corinthians 3:12.

This year at Caronport High School has been a time of building. Each day may be compared to a brick of a building: This brick is molded and pressed each day either into one of gold or silver; a life which is pleasing unto God, or one of wood, hay, stubble; a life which dishonors Christ. As this building grows, there is an increase of weight on the foundation. If these bricks are not solid the building will be of no value. Thus, we as a grade twelve class count it a privilege to take our last year of secular training at Caronport. Each day we have sat under the instruction of consecrated Christian teachers who have been interested in shaping our lives into precious stones of Christ.

As each one of us depart from school this year into our separate veins of life, the bricks of our building will be tested with fire. Those of precious stones, gold and silver, will only be polished. But those of wood, hay and stubble will be destroyed. It is our prayer that as each one of us depart, we will be buildings that are strong and glorifying unto Him.

As a grade eleven class we consider our presence at B.B.I. a privilege and a God-given opportunity. For some of us it is a new experience to live in a supervised dormitory, to eat in a large dining hall, and to share a large part of the work made necessary by so many students. (This is commonly referred to as "gratis"). For others, it has practically become routine.

A question no doubt will arise in some of our minds as to why there is such an emphasis placed on the study of God's Word. "As High School students, we have come for a secular education, haven't we?" Yes, primarily that's what we're here for. Yet, some who are stronger in the faith than we are, have come to the conclusion that in order to build a firm Christian character, we must be grounded on a sure foundation. Such a foundation may be found in Christ alone. And in order to develop into maturity, a thorough knowledge of God's Word is indispensable.

Thus, each one has at his disposal the fundamentals of developing into a mature Christian—a Godly environment, Christian supervision, and ample time provided for the study of His Word.

It has been stated that a Christian never stands still; his love for Christ deepens, or grows cold. As young people will we choose to build firm Christian characters, or will we remain "jelly-fish" Christians? "And now, brethren, I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified." Acts 20:32.

Why do young people come to Caronport? It is not because of the attractiveness of the surrounding country or even the beautiful buildings which make up the campus. It has a far deeper and richer meaning to students and staff. It is not the "place" that attracts people to it, but the "God of the place."

Here at Caronport we find young people from every kind of home and every walk of life. Coming from near and far, they unite into one body to study God's word and find God's will for their lives. Many of us have found, as thousands of others have, that we can only find happiness and contentment when we're in the Lord's will. Here we are equipped to spread the Gospel in more efficient ways to every part of the earth.

We as grade nine and ten students count it a real privilege and blessing to be able to study in this Christian environment. Instructed by consecrated men and women of God, we are able to discover God's will in our lives. We are built up in God's word ready to meet the world. Our prayer is that He will build us together as a worthy habitation of God.

LABOURERS TOGETHER WITH CHRIST

The year 1957 was possibly one of the greatest ever for the Alumni Association of the Briercrest Bible Institute. It was at the annual meeting in November, 1957, that the Association adopted a constitution. The Alumni publication also took on a new look. Instead of the usual news-letter, the Association changed to a small newspaper, the "Alumni News." We trust this paper will continue to be a blessing as graduates are kept informed of the activities at the Institute and news from their fellow-grads.

Both the annual business meeting in the fall, and the meeting in the spring are held during the Bible and Missionary Conference. Thus the grads can enjoy fellowship with friends, as well as enjoy the rich blessings of the conference.

"In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." Ephesians 2:22.

INSTITUTE CHOIR

Musical activities occupy an important position in student life at Caronport. On the campus, instruction in piano, voice, and accordion is available. There are approximately 140 students enrolled in these three fields this year. A musical highlight is the concert presented each season by the 30-piece band. Three choirs known as the Institute Choir, the Radio Choir, and the High School Choir, offer opportunities in still another avenue of musical service. In addition, smaller vocal and instrumental groups frequently assist in services that are held in neighboring cities, towns and rural areas.

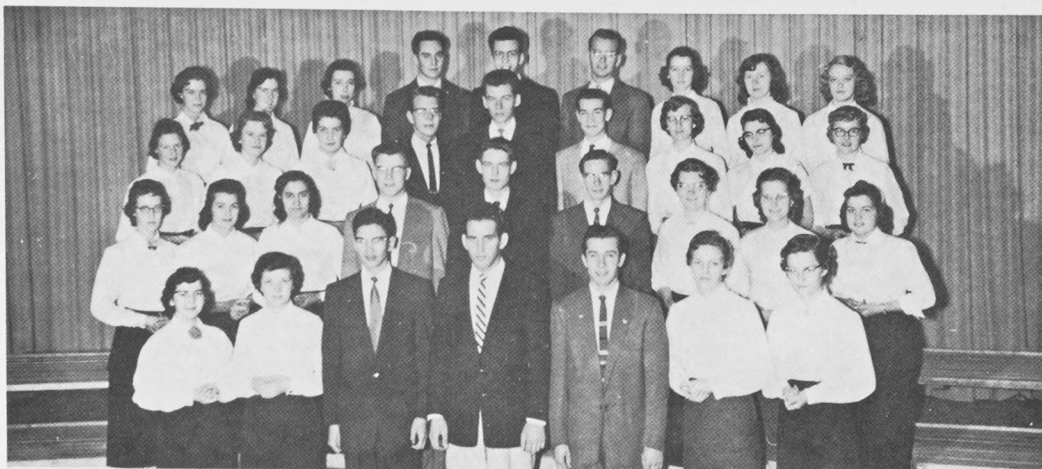

This brief sketch outlines the varied musical opportunities afforded the students at B. B. I.

The challenge that has met us has been the need of prayer support for those who have gone before us. With this before us, we earnestly pray that we will never be found unfaithful in our responsibility to those who have preceded us into the Lord's service.

NORTHERN CANADA
EVANGELICAL MISSION

NORTHERN fields are in need of Christian workers, school teachers and nurses.

CANADA has a mission field in the northland. To date, we have missionaries in five provinces. EVANGELICAL workers are having the joy of seeing Indian souls accept Christ. Indians are attending our Bible School, and some are already native pastors and evangelists.
MISSION work in the north is a pioneer work, as many settlements have no Gospel testimony.

We need YOU to help us!
